

CONTENTS

Tomasz Stryjek, Ukraine and Poland 2022 — in the Face of Russia’s Invasion 3

Małgorzata Łukianow, Anna Wylegała, If, When, and How: Researching and Documenting Life Trajectories of Female Ukrainian War Refugees in Poland 9

Katarzyna Kalinowska, Katarzyna Krakowska, Marta Sałkowska, Why Did Poles Help Ukrainians? Typology of Reasons for Involvement in Helping Ukrainian Refugees 41

Paweł Kuczyński, Małgorzata Latecka, Irmina Szczepaniak, Uncommonness. Experiences of NGOs and Civil Initiatives Assisting Migrants from Ukraine During the First Period of the War 65

Paweł Matuszewski, Jacek Bieliński, Enthusiasm as a Motivator of Assistance Measures for Refugees from Ukraine. Analysis of the Connection Between Enthusiasm and Providing Aid in the Emotional Choice Model 91

Anna Firgolska, Refugees from Ukraine in the Private Discourse of Persons Hosting Them in Their Homes 121

Sebastian Sosnowski, Magdalena Janusz, Kaja Klencka, Sławomir Mandes, Nina Sprycha, Kinga Wardak, The “Ukrainian Mother”: On the Conditions of Aid and Expectations Towards Refugees from Ukraine after 24 February 2022. A Case Study of Facebook Aid Groups 141

Sławomira Kamińska-Berezowska, Rafał Cekiera, The Employment Situation of Ukrainian Labour Migrants According to Representatives of the Inter-Enterprise Trade Union of Ukrainian Workers in Poland 163

Agnieszka Golińska, Magdalena Łuźniak-Piecha, Differences and Similarities Identified Between the Polish Host Society and Migrants from Ukraine and Turkey: The Context of the Labour Market and Education 179

Jarosław Syrynyk, The Legacy of Kyivan Rus and Aporias of Russian Identity in the Context of the Russian-Ukrainian War 203

Barbara Markowska-Marczak, Frames of War: Russia’s Invasion of Ukraine as a Historical Event. Framework Analysis of the Polish Press Discourse 225

Arkadiusz Łuba, Putler, Putinna and Death. Russia’s War Against Ukraine in Political Cartoons and Posters 253

Grzegorz Demel, Whose: Ours? Strangers? Ours, Strangers and Enemies in Film Narratives on the Ukraine-Russian War Before 24 February 2022 283

Wojciech Lipiński, Symbolic Domains and Memory in Ukraine’s Budjak Region, Home to a Bulgarian Minority 315

Tomasz Stryjek, Did Dnipro “Finish” Its Historical Entanglement in 2022? On the Monograph of Dnipro City’s History by Andrii Portnov 347