

CONTENTS

From the Editors	3
THE PREDICTABILITY AND UNCERTAINTY OF CULTURAL CHANGE
'Amoral Familism,' or on the Social Disintegration of Poland in the 1980s (co-author Jacek Tarkowski)	7
A Society of Various Rhythms: The Case of Poland in the Context of Global Tendencies ...	29
Culture and Uncertainty	43
Nowist Culture in the Global and Local View	55
The Social and Cultural Dimensions of New Urban Initiatives: The Example of the Ochota District (parts of a report on recent research)	69
*
Everyday Life as a Subject Not Only of Recent Sociology: On the Margins of A Sociology of Everyday Life (discussion statement)	93
TRANSIENCE AND MEMORY IN CULTURE
Social Time in a Period of Change, or on the New Differentiations in Polish society	105
Memory in the Culture of the Present	121
Collective Memory, Social Time, and Culture: The Polish Tradition in Memory Studies ...	143
Jan Szczepański's 'Dealing with Time'	161
*
Time (a catchword in Modi Memorandi)	175
THE POVERTY OF SOCIETY AND THE POVERTY OF INDIVIDUALS
Closer to the Poor—Experiences and Research Needs	183
Life without Work	201
The Social World of People Living in Poverty	221
The Subjective Dimension of Poverty	239
*
No One Wants to Hear About the Poor (interview in 2005)	257