

“Kultura i Społeczeństwo”, vol. 59, no. 3, 2015
FROM THE FIELD TO THE ARCHIVE AND BACK
On New Research Approaches in the Social Sciences

CONTENTS

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Piotr Filipkowski, Archivization, Reanalysis, Revisit: New Ideas and Approaches in Qualitative Sociological Research | 3 |
| Małgorzata Mazurek, Manufacturing Sociological Knowledge through Ethnographic Revisit | 31 |
| Justyna Straczuk, Andrzej Siciński's Life Styles Studies in Retrospect | 63 |
| Przemysław Nosal, The (Selective) Mirror of Databases: On Two Aspects of Databases in the Context of the Archive of Research into Daily Life | 85 |
| Judit Gárdos, A Puzzle or Not a Puzzle? Hungarian Workers' Culture Collection of the Mid-1970s and a Few Epistemological Questions | 113 |
| Marta Karkowska, European Qualitative Data Archives | 123 |
| * | |
| Maryla Hopfinger, On Stefan Żółkiewski | 139 |
| * | |
| Piotr Tadeusz Kwiatkowski, Beata Nessel-Łukasik, Anna Pokrzywa, The Use of Public Consultations in Planning a Participatory Museum | 165 |
| Ewa Łukaszyk, Colonial, Post-Colonial, and Trans-Colonial Museums as Models of the World: Portuguese, British, and Malaysian Examples | 189 |
| Tomasz Ferenc, Work, Workers, Archives, and Photography—the Maintenance of Stereotypes and the Struggle for Emancipation | 203 |
| Katarzyna Chajbos, Waldemar Rapior, Bringing the Invisible to Public Light: The Visual Archive and the Practice-Oriented Intellectual | 223 |
| * | |
| Danuta Życzyńska-Ciołek, Qualitative Research in the Social Sciences—Archivization and Reuse: Notes on the Conference 'Sociological Qualitative Data as Testimonies of Their Time and Documents of the Discipline' | 241 |
| * | |
| Books Review and Discussions | 247 |