

CONTENTS

Zuzanna Bogumił, Joanna Wawrzyniak, Narratives of Destruction: War Trauma in the City Museums of St. Petersburg, Warsaw and Dresden	3
Zuzanna Bogumił, Conflicts of Memory? On the Interpretations of the Gulag History ..	23
Marta Cobel-Tokarska, Memory of the Jewish Hideouts	41
Elżbieta Kossewska, “ She still speaks Polish, but she already laughs in Hebrew ”: Polish-language Press and Language Integration of Polish Jews in Israel	59
Marta Karkowska, Cultural Memory and Changes in Cityscape: An Analysis of the Celebration of the Anniversary of the Settlement of Olsztyn from a Perspective of Aleida and Jan Assmann’s Concepts	77
*
Mirosław Ustrzycki, Home Education and Upbringing in Polish Gentry Families in Lithuania at the End of the XIX Century	99
*
Jakub Bazyli Motrenko, Alain Touraine’s Study of the Solidarity: History and Consequences	117
Paweł Załęski, Was the Solidarity a Civil Society? How the Neo-Republican Project of Self-Governing People was Forgotten	141
Marcin Kula, Did We Soak Up Communism? Mémoire Raisonné of a Historian About his Former Workplace	153
Łukasz Krzyżanowski, Pictures from the People’s Republic of Poland: Image of the Communist Past in Contemporary Polish Cinema	185
Oskar Mulej, “ We Are Drowning in Red Beetroots as We Try to Plug the Holes in the Red Curtain ”: The Punk Scene in Ljubljana in the Late 1970s and Early 1980s	197
*
Wiktoria Czysciakowa, Aleksiej Wasiliew, Difficult Topics for Polish and Russian Memory: Historiography, Literature and Film	211
Miloslav Petrussek, The Place of Zygmunt Bauman in the Development of Czech Sociology	223
*
Books Review and Discussions	231