

“Kultura i Społeczeństwo”, vol. LI, no 2, 2007

“THE IDENTITY OF RELIGION — THE RELIGION OF MEMORIES”

CONTENTS

Kaja Kaźmierska, The Social Framework of Memory .....	3
Katarzyna Stańczak-Wiślicz, Dawid Rabinowicz's "Diary" as a Record of a Divided World .....	25
Janusz Smykowski, Individual and Collective Adaptation to Suffering in Conditions of External Duress .....	47
Marta Zawodna, About what Is Left. A Biographical Approach to Research on Human Remains, Using the Example of the Hair Exhibited in the Auschwitz-Birkenau Museum .....	65
Marcin Zaremba, The Myth of Ritual Murder in Post-war Poland. Archaeology and Hypotheses .....	91
Aleksandra Herman, A Divided Community. An Analysis of Selected Aspects of Local Politics in a Two-faith Village .....	137
Grzegorz Francuz, The Place of Religion in a Liberal Democracy .....	161
Katarzyna Zielińska, The Disputes over the Theory of Secularisation .....	181
Maria Libiszowska-Żółtkowska, About the Definition and Classification of New Religious Movements .....	199
*
Bronisław Gołębiowski, Professionalism and the Company as Values for a Citizen-owner. A Small Case Study .....	219
*
Books Review and Discussions .....	237