

CONTENTS

Introduction. Historical Sociology—Why, and What Kind? (Agnieszka Kolasa-Nowak, Borys Cymbrowski)	3
--	---

ARTICLES AND TREATISES

Agnieszka Kolasa-Nowak, What Kind of Historical Sociology? Between the Tradition of Civil Sociology and Internationalisation	9
Marcin Jarzabek, Historical Sociology and Game Theory. Social Actors' Decision Modelling and its Limitations	29
Borys Cymbrowski, Processes of Monopolization and the State in the Thought of Norbert Elias	45
Łukasz Moll, Longevity or Ephemerality of Plebeian Commons? Towards a Historical (a)Sociology	67
Joanna Kulpińska, Family Microhistories — Chains and Networks in Migrations to the United States over the Centuries. A Comparative Analysis of the Exodus from Rural Poland, Germany and Sweden	91
Ryszard Radzik, The Main Factors in the Formation of the Modern Belarussian Community (19th to 21st Centuries)	113
Marcin Wilk, Agency in Research into the Social History of Girls. Interwar Tarnów as an Example	159
Łukasz Dominiak, Classicide. A Sociological Explanation of the Peasant Riots in Western Galicia in 1846	181
Jarosław Chodak, Was Solidarity 1980–1981 a Revolutionary Movement?	209
Mikołaj Ratajczak, The Italian Laboratory and Sources of Neoliberal Counterrevolution: Radical Italian Political Philosophy of the “Years of Lead”	235

Memory of Andrzej Tyszka (1934–2022) (Antoni Sułek)	263
--	-----