

CONTENTS

Care for wellbeing in private, institutional and public space: introduction (Małgorzata Synowiec-Piłat, Agnieszka Borowiec)	3
--	---

Paweł Przyłęcki, Salutogenic understanding of wellbeing: on how the salutogenesis model can help achieve wellbeing	11
Magdalena Gajewska, Magdalena Żadkowska, A couple and a dog. Wellbeing as a planned consequence of inter-species family practices	33
Stella Grotowska, Tourism and wellbeing. Experiences of individual tourists as presented in travel blogs	51
Jacek Mianowski, Altruism and social solidarity as sources of wellbeing among participants in the “OnkoMarsz” project of the Onkorejs Foundation	71

Stanisław Maksymowicz, The unseen. Suffering, exclusion and adaptation in rare diseases	93
Barbara Woźniak, Paulina Gajda, Beata Tobiasz-Adamczyk, Social exclusion and the odds of neglect and self-neglect in older adults — results from a quantitative study conducted in Lesser Poland area	119
Agnieszka Pawlak-Kałużyńska, Emigration and wellbeing, physical and mental	147

Iwona Młodziak, Elżbieta Brzezicka, Urszula Zwierczyk, Mateusz Kobryn, Marta Wilk, Mariusz Duplaga, Denialist and sceptical attitudes versus trust: reactions to the COVID-19 pandemic from a socio-cultural perspective	167
Aleksandra Nowakowska-Kutra, Agnieszka Jeran, Verbal obstetric and medical violence against women giving birth in Poland. A sociological portrayal of the range and diversity of experiences among those giving birth	185
Aleksandra Piłat-Kobla, Maria Świątkiewicz-Mośny, Magdalena Ślusarczyk, Anna Prokop-Dorner, Natalia Ożegalska-Łukasik, Aleksandra Potysz-Rzyman, Marianna Zarychta, Małgorzata M. Bała, Analysis of school textbooks in Poland from 2017 to 2022: a critical view of health-related content	205
Magdalena Wiczorkowska, Negative effects of involvement in aid activities among volunteers, taking voluntary assistance for Ukrainian citizens as an example	231

Reviews, discussions	253
----------------------------	-----