

CONTENTS

Symbolic Boundaries in Social Communication: Introduction (Jerzy Stachowiak, Adam Konopka)	3
---	---

Kacper Leśniewicz, “Us” and “Them”: The Symbolic Boundaries of the Middle Class in Poland	15
Adam Konopka, Symbolic Boundaries in Decommunization Discourse: Analysing the Media Coverage of a Conflict over Renaming of Jan Piechocki’s Street in Bydgoszcz	37
Marek Troszyński, Katarzyna Iwińska, Green Hydrogen. Energy Justice Through the Lens of Press Discourse Analysis, 2016–2022	55
Katarzyna Waniek, Therapeutic Discourse and the Psychologization of Everyday Life in Autobiographical Accounts. Research Observations and Methodological Challenges for Biographical Sociology	75
Dominika Zajączkowska, Redefining Symbolic Boundaries Concerning Women’s Work. Analysis of Feminist Narratives and the Tradwife Movement	93
Henryk Domański, Objective and Symbolic Class Distances in Poland	113
Alicja Raciniewska, Fashion Scandals. On the Limits of Fashion Creativity	133
Łukasz Remisiewicz, Apply Knowledge, Serve the Community, and Don’t Anger the Bureaucrat! Writing Reviews as Boundary Work	153
Julia Walczak, Tokenism or Inclusion? Symbolic Boundaries Between “Us” and “Them” in the Polish Queer Community’s Reception of LGBT+ Ads	173
Dorota Rancew-Sikora, Magdalena Brzezińska, Communication as Opportunity and Bond-Commitment in Statements by Residents of the Gambia on Migration to Europe	189
Jerzy Stachowiak, Boundaries of Concepts. A Study of Two Cases: “Respecification” and “Accountability”	209

Anna Wylegała, Research Ethics in Boundary Situations: On the Margins of Research into Ukraine’s Experience of Full-Scale War Since 2022	225
---	-----

Facts and problems	251
--------------------------	-----