

“Kultura i Społeczeństwo”, vol. 70, no. 1, 2026

THE BIOGRAPHICAL METHOD IN THE SOCIAL SCIENCES

CONTENTS

The Biographical Method in the Social Sciences: Trends and Controversies — Introduction (Agnieszka Golczyńska-Grondas, Katarzyna Waniek) .....	3
--	---

Adam Mrozowicki, Un(usual) Crisis: The COVID-19 Pandemic in the Biographical Experiences of American and Polish Care Workers .....	9
Agnieszka Golczyńska-Grondas, The Obsolescence and Neutralization of Descriptive Languages, the Risks of Linguistic Entanglement, and Biographical Research .....	29
Jerzy Stachowiak, Does the Interview Make Experience Available? The Rhetoric of Fact and Concretization Sequences in Biographical Accounts .....	51
Justyna Kajta, Katarzyna Bielecka, Stefan Bieńkowski, Olga Czeranowska, Reflexive Sociology in Practice: The Significance of Class in Biographical Research .....	73
Magdalena Szpunar, The Trouble with Autoethnography. Between Method, Technique, and Self-Writing .....	95

Regina Skiba, Dorota Węziak-Białowolska, Eileen McNeely, Between Routine and Change: Social Practices of Factory Workers Before and During the COVID-19 Pandemic .....	117
Krzysztof Lepczyński, Arkadiusz Karwacki, Joanna Felczak, Tomasz Leszniewski, “School Does Not Exist; Teachers Exist”: Quality of Life at Work of Teachers in the Context of the Pandemic Crisis .....	141

Piotr Walkowiak, Breeding Fancy Pigeons as an Element in the Acculturation of Polish Migrants .....	163
--	-----

In Memory of Włodzimierz Andrzej Rostocki (16 October 1947 – 6 February 2026) (Mieczysław Gałuszka) .....	183
---	-----

Reviews and Discussion .....	189
------------------------------	-----