

CONTENTS

“Sense and Sensibility”: on the Sensibilities of Social and Cultural Anthropology (Anna Horolets) .....	3
---	---

Aleksandra Herman, Aneta Ostaszewska, Reflexivity and Sensitivity in Qualitative Research: Methodological Practices in Polish-Language Sociology .....	13
Karolina Gajda, From Streetworker to Ethnographer: A Personal Journey Between the Street and Academia .....	35
Anna Malewska-Szałygin, The Young Social Researcher and Experience: Students’ Sensitivity During Ethnographic Fieldwork .....	55
Michał Mokrzan, Mutually Implicated and Intra-Actively Enhanced Commons: Diffractive Readings of Tyler’s and Barad’s Theories .....	73
Jacek Gądecki, Katarzyna Hetmańczyk, Wojciech Kowalik, DIY Practices and New Anthropological Sensibilities .....	91
Maja Wróblewska, Temporal Practices of Allotment Gardeners: Free Time, Family Time, and Personal Time .....	111
Karolina Ciechorska-Kulesza, The Appeal of the Ordinary? Imagining the Development of “Ordinary Cities”: The Cases of Elbląg, Koszalin, and Słupsk .....	133
Laura Żary, My Own Orient: Visual Autoethnography from Central and Eastern Europe as an Exploration of Cultural Entanglement .....	155

Andrzej Maciej Kaniowski, Jürgen Habermas: Philosopher and Man Devoted to Communication (18 June 1929 – 14 March 2026) .....	177
---	-----

Marcin Kula, Let’s Renew and Expand Awareness of Our Roots: On the Correspondence of Stefan Czarnowski .....	195
---	-----