

CONTENTS

Editorial	7
-----------------	---

ARTICLES

World War II

Piotr Madajczyk, Raphael Lemkin's Historical Concept of Genocide as a Tool for Analysing German Occupation Policy	13
Grzegorz Bębnik, Karol Jonca (1930–2008) – a Lawyer by Education, a Historian by Passion	31
Tomasz Ceran, Professor Jerzy Wojciech Borejsza – an Unobvious Classic	55
Anna Czocher, The Contemporary Classic Historian – Professor Tomasz Szarota	75
Marek Kornat, “The State of Emergency:” Franciszek Ryszka on National Socialist Germany	97
Joanna Lubecka, Lawyers-Researchers – the Role of Tadeusz Cyprian and Jerzy Sawicki in Researching and Judging German Crimes	123
Piotr Madajczyk, Professor Czesław Madajczyk	147
Marcin Przeglętk, A Lawyer by Education, a Historian by Vocation: The Legacy of Karol Marian Pospieszalski in the Field of Research on the German Occupation of Polish Lands in 1939–1945	169
Wojciech Wichert, Czesław Łuczak's Research on the German Occupation of Poland in 1939–1945	187
Marek Wierzbicki, Professor Tomasz Strzembosz	211

War in Ukraine

Krzysztof Żerko, Participation of German Volunteers in the Russo-Ukrainian Armed Conflict – Scale and Motivations	239
--	-----

REVIEWS

Monika Wiśniewska, Women's Rights as a Field of Cold War Rivalry between the GDR and the FRG	259
About the Authors	267