

Contents

Preface	5
THE COMEBACK OF CITIES. THE CITIES OF THE FUTURE
Agnieszka Szpak, Joanna Modrzyńska, Michał Dahl The role of cities in times of crisis of multilateralism	9
Krzysztof Wasilewski Cities and memory paradiplomacy.
The international dimension of local politics of memory	37
Tomasz Kamiński, Michał Gzik Cooperation of Polish cities with Chinese partners and its role in Polish foreign policy	65
Marcin Frenkel Contemporary cooperation of Polish and American cities. The analysis of survey results	93
Joanna Ciesielska-Klikowska Cooperation of German cities with Chinese partners and its importance for Germany's foreign policy	119
Dominika Janus Smart cities in China: sustainable or surveyed	153
Urszula Kurczewska The lobbying of cities in the European Union	175
Konrad Niklewicz Countering frames: how Warsaw and Budapest mayors communicated their international activity	195
DIPLOMATIC CABINET
Adam Burakowski Lesson of political realism. The visit of Nicolae Ceaușescu to the United States in April 1978	217
REVIEW ARTICLES
Katarzyna Golik The state of one city: postnomad urbanisation and the specificity of urban space. A review of a book entitled Shaping Urban Futures in Mongolia: Ulaanbaatar, Dynamic Ownership and Economic Flux by Rebekah Plueckhahn	245