

Contents

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Preface  | 5   |
| EUROPE FACING THE NEED FOR CHANGE  |     |
| Sylwia Katarzyna Mazur  |     |
| Selected Aspects of the Evolution of the European Union'sEnlargement Process from a Legal Perspective  | 7   |
| Magdalena Matusiak-Frączak  |     |
| Protecting Freedom of Expression and Counteracting Propagandaand Disinformation in the European Union  | 29  |
| Paulina Zamelek   |     |
| Armaments Policy in the European Union – no Longer a Sisyphean Challenge   | 59  |
| Bogusław Balza  |     |
| Asylum Law Effectiveness: Contrasting Australia and the EUin Managing Economic and Humanitarian Challenges   | 105 |
| Miłosz J. Cordes (né Zieliński)   |     |
| Ultra-Russian, Ultra-Besieged:Kaliningrad Oblast, EU Enlargement and Memory Politics in Russia   | 125 |
| THE WORLD IN AN ENERGY CRISIS  |     |
| Tomasz Grzegorz Grosse  |     |
| The European Union's Climate Policy during the Energy Crisis:Geoeconomic Implications  | 151 |
| Maciej Skuza  |     |
| The Renaissance of Nuclear Energy: Global Technological Competitionand Development Prospects of the Nuclear Sector in the Contextof Geopolitical Changes and Climate Crisis                                    | 187 |
| REVIEWS  |     |
| Marta Gębska  |     |
| Piotr Lewandowski, "Potęga narracji. Narodowe mity (geo)polityczne Rosjiw kontekście bezpieczeństwa informacyjnego" ['The Power of Narrative:Russia's National (Geo)political Myths and Information Security'] | 213 |